RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE JACKSONVILLE WELCOMES KRIS ROBERTS TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., October 23, 2025 — Ronald McDonald House Jacksonville is pleased to announce the appointment of Kris Roberts, RHIA, MPMC, to its Board of Directors. Roberts currently serves as the Chief Operating Officer for Brooks Rehabilitation's Inpatient and Home Health divisions, where she oversees strategy and operations for three inpatient rehabilitation hospitals and a 23-county home health agency.

Roberts has been with Brooks Rehabilitation since 2003. Over the past two decades, she has taken on numerous leadership roles, including System Vice President of Revenue Cycle and Shared Services and Senior Vice President for the Home Health Division.

As COO, Roberts has overseen major expansions at Brooks Rehabilitation, including the addition of a 60-bed inpatient rehabilitation hospital on the Bartram Campus, a 10-bed renovation at the University Campus, and a 12-bed expansion in partnership with Halifax Health.

In addition to her role at Brooks, she serves as Chair of the Rehab Council for the Florida Hospital Association and is a member of the University of North Florida Health Administration Advisory Board.

"It is an honor to serve on the Ronald McDonald House board," said Roberts. "This amazing organization gives families the comfort of community and support when they need it most. I look forward to helping support Ronald McDonald House's incredible mission."

"We are thrilled to welcome Kris to our Board of Directors," said Joey Leik, CEO of Ronald McDonald House Jacksonville. "Her deep understanding of healthcare operations and commitment to compassionate care align perfectly with our mission to keep families close to the care and resources they need."
